

Adult Dependent Election and Eligibility Form

For Use When Group Subscriber Exercises Mandatory Right of Election to Extend Eligible Dependent Coverage through Age 29

Subscribers covered under group health insurance policies issued in New York State, and their eligible dependents, may purchase extended coverage for dependent children through age 29. To qualify for the extended dependent coverage, the dependent must meet each of the eligibility requirements listed below. This extended coverage is available for new plans issued on and after September 1, 2009 and for existing plans upon the policy's annual renewal date on or after September 1, 2009.

By completing this form, the undersigned subscriber is electing this continuation of coverage for his or her eligible dependent. The dependent coverage will be the same that applies to the subscriber under the current group policy. The additional premium due with respect to the extended dependent coverage is solely the responsibility of the subscriber.

DIRECTIONS:

Provide the following information in full and submit the signed form with the first premium payment to your employer. In all cases, an Enrollment/Change Form signed by the subscriber is also required to enroll the dependent.
