

Getting the Most Out of Gale in Context: Opposing Viewpoints and Gale In Context: Middle School

January 16, 2020 | 6-12 Educators

February 4, 2020 | 6-12 Educators

Opposing Viewpoints is the premier online resource covering today's hottest social issues, from capital punishment to immigration to marijuana. In this instructed webinar, we will navigate features that support development of research skills and seeking authoritative content. You will learn how to help students target topics of interest, develop effective search strategies, and manage multiple sources.

Discover the NEW TeachingBooks!

January 22, 2020 | K-12 Librarians

February 20, 2020 | 6-12 Classroom Teachers & Librarians

March 19, 2020 | K-6 Classroom Teachers & Librarians

Join us for a one-hour instructed webinar on using TeachingBooks as a curricular resource. All the same great resources in a new look! Explore videos filmed in authors' studios, lessons, book trailers, and vocabulary lists. Discover resources that will expand the experience readers have with books. Deepen connections to books while discovering online materials to engage readers, support families, and empower colleagues.

Britannica School

January 29, 2020 | K-12 Educators

Britannica School is an online encyclopedia for all grades (PreK-12) and all reading abilities. Join Britannica's Education Consultant, Courtney France, to discover non-fiction text, multimedia, and interactive content to support your curriculum. Build digital content sets for the school year within Britannica School.

Britannica Academic

February 10, 2020 | High School Teachers - Advanced Placement & Collegiate Level

Britannica Academic includes Encyclopedia Britannica plus Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, magazines and periodicals, and many other research tools. Join Britannica's Education Consultant, Courtney France, to discover non-fiction text, multimedia, and interactive content to support your curriculum. Build digital content sets for the school year within Britannica Academic.

Britannica Escolar

March 2, 2020 | K-12 Educators - English as a Second Language and Spanish Teachers

Britannica Escolar is an accurate and age-appropriate content in Spanish for native Spanish speakers, bilingual students and students learning Spanish. Available at two levels: primary and secondary. Join Britannica's Education Consultant, Courtney France, to discover non-fiction text, multimedia, and interactive content to support your curriculum. Build digital content sets for the school year within Britannica Escolar.

New York Heritage and Digital Public Library of America

March 3, 2020 | K-12 Educators

This one-hour instructed webinar will introduce participants to New York Heritage (NYH) and Digital Public Library of America (DPLA), two websites that provide free access to primary sources and other resources for the K-12 Community. NYH is a digital library containing historical resources contributed by hundreds of organizations in New York. DPLA is a national portal that provides access to millions of resources from organizations across the country, as well as primary source sets and teaching guides for classroom use.

Dive into Summer Reading with TeachingBooks

May 14, 2020 | K-6 Classroom Teachers & Librarians

Join us for a one-hour instructed webinar, highlighting ready to use and custom reading lists. We will share practical examples you can use in your libraries and classrooms to support summer reading programs.

The Britannica and Gale In Context resources are provided by the New York State Library through NOVELNY.

Contact your school librarian for the remote username and password.

Register at: www.dcboces.org/pd

Contact Information: Rebecca Gerald/845.486.4840 x 4561/rebecca.gerald@dcboces.org

Registration Assistance: Frances Hutman/845.486.4840 x4531/frances.hutman@dcboces.org